Welcome to the Journey through Shadowlands Sunday School Curriculum. Pastor Jordan Rimmer and Pastor Chris Thomas are so excited that you are going on this journey with us.

In life, we are sometimes forced to walk through shadowlands. We can get scared, lost, and angry as pain, suffering, and grief surround us. We must learn to understand, navigate, and journey through the valley of the shadow of death. Most importantly, we must remember that we are not alone. Christ is with us and we are with each other.

Before you get started, we wanted to give you some tips for having a great group experience. This is especially important for this curriculum, because we will be talking about some difficult topics that people sometimes avoid talking about.

The biggest goal for you, as a leader and a group, is to set up a safe environment where people can engage in their own way. Some may want to speak. Some may want to listen. The challenge is to balance everyone's engagement so that everyone can get the most out of the time.

Here are some practical tips for your group

•Sequence your questions well. Many people, at the end of a teaching, automatically ask what people learned. Most of the time the honest answer is: Nothing. People need to process to learn. A good model is to ask what, so what, then now what. What did the speaker say and what did the speaker mean? Then move to so what does that mean for me, or what is the larger principle? Finally, what do I do with this information? It could also be put as understanding, meaning, then application. Keep them in order.

•Ask one, clear question at a time. Many times people rapid fire 3-4 questions at once, but the problem with doing this is that the brain is then processing the questions, not the answers. Ask one question at a time, and give people space to think of the answer. We give you too many questions in this book, so pick a couple ahead or in the moment that fit well and ask them clearly.

•Follow the energy. If the group wants to talk about something then follow the energy. Don't shut down good conversation because of your agenda. Trust the Holy Spirit in the rabbit trails.

S H A D O W T. A N D S

• Give space for people to think. As people, we fear awkward silences. Don't. Sometimes we need silence to let us think. Don't rush to fill pauses in conversation.

• Deepen the conversation with follow up questions. If someone answers, ask "Tell me more" or "give me an example of that." These questions are gold for small group discussions.

• Let everyone talk. Some people are more than happy to keep talking, but this can force the quiet ones to stay quiet. You may have to ask people to have a time limit on their thoughts or ask people to pipe in a limited number of times. Sometimes in small groups we get to practice accountability and truth telling with those who are dominating the conversation.

• Whip around the table. One way to get everyone to safely talk is to do a "whip around the table." You can ask everyone to give a one word response to the video, or a five word description of their takeaway from the discussion. This goes fast and involves everyone even if they are shy.

• Don't make everyone talk. If someone does not want to talk, respect their choice. If they are going to talk, it needs to be because they want to, not because you forced them to.

•Pair and Share. This is another great tool. Ask people to get into groups of two or three to share or respond. This is the best way to get at more personal stories, and some people who won't share in the group will share in a pairing. You can then have the group report back from their discussions.

Psalm 88

A Song. A Psalm of the Korahites. To the leader: according to Mahalath Leannoth. A Maskil of Heman the Ezrahite.

O Lord, God of my salvation,
when, at night, I cry out in your presence,
let my prayer come before you;
incline your ear to my cry.
For my soul is full of troubles,
and my life draws near to Sheol.
I am counted among those who go down to the Pit;
I am like those who have no help,
like those forsaken among the dead,
like the slain that lie in the grave,
like those whom you remember no more,
for they are cut off from your hand.
You have put me in the depths of the Pit,
in the regions dark and deep.
Your wrath lies heavy upon me,
and you overwhelm me with all your waves. Selah
You have caused my companions to shun me;
you have made me a thing of horror to them.
I am shut in so that I cannot escape;
my eye grows dim through sorrow.

Every day I call on you, O Lord;
I spread out my hands to you.
Do you work wonders for the dead?
Do the shades rise up to praise you? Selah
Is your steadfast love declared in the grave, or your faithfulness in Abaddon?
Are your wonders known in the darkness, or your saving help in the land of forgetfulness?
But I, O Lord, cry out to you;
in the morning my prayer comes before you.
O Lord, why do you cast me off?
Why do you hide your face from me?
Wretched and close to death from my youth up,
I suffer your terrors; I am desperate.
Your wrath has swept over me;
your dread assaults destroy me.
They surround me like a flood all day long;
from all sides they close in on me.
You have caused friend and neighbor to shun me;
my companions are in darkness.

KICK-OFF CONVERSATION

When have you been surprised by bad news or an unclear future? Do you remember the shock?

What questions did you have that could not be answered?

OPENING PRAYER (In Unison)

Gracious God—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit: We are here to meet you and learn from you. We open our hearts and minds to your guidance. Help us to have the meekness of mind to seek your thoughts over our own thoughts; to have the humility of heart to seek one will—Your will; to have the Serenity of the Spirit to let your peace be our peace, no matter what transpires. Meet us in this time. Amen.

UNDERSTANDING (WHAT?)

What were your initial reactions to the story?

What would you do in the same situation as Spafford?

What was Pastor Chris trying to get you to think about?

How did the Psalm connect with the video?

S H A D O W T. A N D S

Now that you have heard the story of Horatio Spafford, read the words to his great hymn- “It is Well”- with fresh eyes, and see what they mean to you.

*When peace, like a river, attendeth my way,
When sorrows like sea billows roll;
Whatever my lot, Thou hast taught me to say,
It is well, it is well with my soul.*

*It is well, with my soul
It is well, it is well with my soul.*

*Though Satan should buffet, though trials should come,
Let this blest assurance control,
That Christ hath regarded my helpless estate,
And hath shed His own blood for my soul.*

*My sin, oh the bliss of this glorious thought!
My sin, not in part but the whole,
Is nailed to His cross, and I bear it no more,
Praise the Lord, praise the Lord, O my soul!*

*For me, be it Christ, be it Christ hence to live:
If Jordan above me shall roll,
No pain shall be mine, for in death as in life
Thou wilt whisper Thy peace to my soul.*

*And Lord haste the day, when the faith shall be sight,
The clouds be rolled back as a scroll;
The trump shall resound, and the Lord shall descend,
Even so, it is well with my soul.*

Psalm 142

A Maskil of David. When he was in the cave. A Prayer.

With my voice I cry to the Lord;
with my voice I make supplication to the Lord.
I pour out my complaint before him;
I tell my trouble before him.
When my spirit is faint,
you know my way.
In the path where I walk
they have hidden a trap for me.
Look on my right hand and see—
there is no one who takes notice of me;
no refuge remains to me;
no one cares for me.
I cry to you, O Lord;
I say, “You are my refuge,
my portion in the land of the living.”
Give heed to my cry,
for I am brought very low.
Save me from my persecutors,
for they are too strong for me.
Bring me out of prison,
so that I may give thanks to your name.
The righteous will surround me,
for you will deal bountifully with me.

KICK-OFF CONVERSATION

Bless all that we do, so that we can do what you bless. Meet us in this time. In Christ's name we pray. Amen.*

UNDERSTANDING (WHAT?)

What were your initial reactions to the story?

What would you do in the same situation as Joni Eareckson Tada?

How did the Psalm connect with the video?

What was Pastor Jordan trying to get you to think about?

If you got bold enough to say anything to God, what would you say? What would you ask?

In 2017, Joni wrote an article for the Gospel Coalition reflecting on the 50th anniversary of her diving accident. Jordan made reference to this thought in the video, but here is the larger quote. React to it.

Back in the '70s, my Bible study friend Steve Estes shared ten little words that set the course for my life: "God permits what he hates to accomplish what he loves." Steve explained it this way: "Joni, God allows all sorts of things he doesn't approve of. God hated the torture, injustice, and treason that led to the crucifixion. Yet he permitted it so that the world's worst murder could become the world's only salvation. In the same way, God hates spinal cord injury, yet he permitted it for the sake of Christ in you—as well as in others. Like Joseph when he told his brothers, 'God intended [my suffering] for good to accomplish what is now being done, the saving of many lives'" (Gen. 50:20).

Psalm 13:1-4

To the leader. A Psalm of David.

How long, O Lord? Will you forget me forever?

How long will you hide your face from me?

How long must I bear pain in my soul, and have sorrow in my heart all day long?

How long shall my enemy be exalted over me?

Consider and answer me, O Lord my God!

Give light to my eyes, or I will sleep the sleep of death, and my enemy will say, "I have prevailed";

my foes will rejoice because I am shaken.

KICK-OFF CONVERSATION

People have done terrible things to one another in history. From abuse and murder, to Rwanda and the Holocaust, human beings are capable of great evil. What makes someone capable of taking part in these terrible things?

What would you do if you lived in Germany as the abuse of the Nazi party was beginning?

OPENING PRAYER (In Unison)

Holy God, bless us in our time together so that we will be doing your will in everything we do. Help us to put aside our pride and ego that seeks only what we want, so that we can be filled with your Spirit that leads us to want what you want. Hear us in silence as we center ourselves in you and ask you to guide us in this study and conversation..... Amen.

PLAY VIDEO 3, “Walking in Darkness”

UNDERSTANDING- WHAT?

What were your initial reactions to the story?

Would you have the courage, as Bonhoeffer did, to go back to Germany after getting to safety?

How did the Psalm connect with the video?

What was Pastor Chris trying to get you to think about?

In the video, Pastor Chris made reference to some of Bonhoeffer's writing. The essay he referred to was written in April 1933, after the Nazis had boycotted Jewish businesses. The essay, titled "The Church and the Jewish Question," is summarized by the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum in this way. What is your reaction to this argument?

On this point, Bonhoeffer was explicit about the church's obligations to fight political injustice. The church, he wrote, must fight evil in three stages: The first was to question state injustice and call the state to responsibility; the second was to help the victims of injustice, whether they were church members or not. Ultimately, however, the church might find itself called "not only to help the victims who have fallen under the wheel, but to fall into the spokes of the wheel itself" in order to halt the machinery of injustice.

Psalm 119:105-112

Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path.
I have sworn an oath and confirmed it,
to observe your righteous ordinances.
I am severely afflicted;
give me life, O Lord, according to your word.
Accept my offerings of praise, O Lord,
and teach me your ordinances.
I hold my life in my hand continually,
but I do not forget your law.
The wicked have laid a snare for me,
but I do not stray from your precepts.
Your decrees are my heritage forever;
they are the joy of my heart.
I incline my heart to perform your statutes forever, to the end.

PLAY VIDEO 4, “Surrendering in the Darkness”

UNDERSTANDING (WHAT?)

What were your initial reactions to the story of Spurgeon?

What would you do if you were part of his church when someone yelled fire and 7 people died?

How did the Psalm connect with the video?

What was Pastor Jordan trying to get you to think about?

Pastor Jordan referred to the end of Spurgeon’s essay on “The Minister’s Fainting Fits.” Read the whole paragraph, perhaps a few sentences at a time, and react to it.

The lesson of wisdom is, be not dismayed by soul-trouble. Count it no strange thing, but a part of ordinary ministerial experience. Should the power of depression be more than ordinary, think not that all is over with your usefulness. Cast not away your confidence, for it hath great recompense of reward.

Even if the enemy’s foot be on your neck, expect to rise and overthrow him. Cast the burden of the present, along with the sin of the past and the fear of the future, upon the Lord, who forsaketh not his saints. Live by the day—ay, by the hour. Put no trust in frames and feelings. Care more for a grain of faith than a ton of excitement. Trust in God alone, and lean not on the reeds of human help. Be not surprised when friends fail you: it is a failing world. Never count upon immutability in man: inconstancy you may reckon upon without fear of disappointment.

SHADOWS

The disciples of Jesus forsook him; be not amazed if your adherents wander away to other teachers: as they were not your all when with you, all is not gone from you with their departure. Serve God with all your might while the candle is burning, and then when it goes out for a season, you will have the less to regret. Be content to be nothing, for that is what you are. When your own emptiness is painfully forced upon your consciousness, chide yourself that you ever dreamed of being full, except in the Lord. Set small store by present rewards; be grateful for earnest by the way, but look for the recompensing joy hereafter.

Continue, with double earnestness to serve your Lord when no visible result is before you. Any simpleton can follow the narrow path in the light: faith's rare wisdom enables us to march on in the dark with infallible accuracy, since she places her hand in that of her Great Guide. Between this and heaven there may be rougher weather yet, but it is all provided for by our covenant Head. In nothing let us be turned aside from the path which the divine call has urged us to pursue. Come fair or come foul, the pulpit is our watch-tower, and the ministry our warfare; be it ours, when we cannot see the face of our God, to trust under THE SHADOW OF HIS WINGS.

Use this space to react to Spurgeon's words

Psalm 23

A Psalm of David.

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.

He makes me lie down in green pastures;
he leads me beside still waters;
he restores my soul.

He leads me in right paths for his name's sake.

Even though I walk through the darkest valley,
I fear no evil;

for you are with me;
your rod and your staff—
they comfort me.

You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies;
you anoint my head with oil;
my cup overflows.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life, and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord
my whole life long.
